iPad Check Out Policy

Revised January 30, 2019

The UCSB Department of Music has a limited number of iPads available for music majors to check out for the purpose of hands-free page turning via the Forscore app. Each iPad is equipped with a Bluetooth pedal for page turning as well as an Apple pencil for score mark-up.

Eligibility

You must be a music major. Those students who have a scheduled recital in the current quarter, or who are performing in a concert/event, have priority access over other students.

Maximum Check Out Time

- 2 days for normal use, such as single rehearsals and practice sessions. (May have to forfeit if requested by another student who has priority access and no other iPads are available).
- 2 weeks if preparing for a recital or ensemble performance in the current quarter.

Rental Terms and Conditions

1. The USER assumes full financial responsibility for the iPad, pedal, and software at the current fair market value. They shall keep the equipment in a good state, normal wear and tear expected.
2. The USER agrees that in exchange for their use of the iPad and equipment, that the USER agrees to pay for the replacement cost in the event of any damage or loss whatsoever. Additionally, if the equipment is damaged, the USER shall pay the UCSB Department of Music the cost of repairs needed to bring the equipment back to the condition it was at the time of rental.
3. The USER shall not use the iPad and pedal in a location other than the Music Building without the UCSB Department of Music's approval. The USER shall inform the UCSB Department of Music of the exact location of the borrowed equipment upon demand.
